Description

A beautifully elegant small table. Ideal in any small space or beside a sofa or bed. This piece is typically Regency period with slim turned legs, small knob handles and the wonderfully figured mahogany is inlaid with ebony around the top edge. It stands on 4 delightful little brass casters. All original. It has a useful full width drawer and a little slide beneath. In excellent robust condition. No wobbles etc. An old repair to the drawer but well-done and completely sound. A good piece. The measurements given below are with both flaps down. When up the width is 84cm
