Description

A 19th century oak finely hand carved figure of St. Dominic signed F.DUMON, BRUGES 1862. He is surrounded by his attributes, TORCH the dog with a flaming torch, he holds a book/ bible Showing him as a teacher, a lily depicting purity, a rosary which he is credited with introducing. He stands on octagonal base. Saint Dominic is often depicted with Torch the dog with a torch next to an orb, as his mother while pregnant, dreamt that a black and white dog leapt from her womb with a torch In his mouth. She understood that the dream foretold the birth of her son Dominic and his order. The Dominicans Are known as the "Dogs of the Lord", in Latin Dominic canes.
