Description

A handsome antique Edwardian inlaid mahogany Arts & Crafts headboard dating from circa 1905. The richly figured mahogany frame with central inlaid panel above 6 vertical rails, flanked by exotic wood marquetry designs. Originally part of a bedstead, it is large and impressive, showing signs of wear to the feet, with numerous holes where it has been attached to a bed and where the brackets would have been. Construction/Wood: Mahogany Condition Report: Showing signs of wear to the feet, with numerous holes where it has been attached to a bed and where the brackets would have been. Chip to top right corner. Various sections of inlay missing in places. Dimensions: Height: 161cm Width: 138cm Depth: 3cm
