Description

This is an elegant Regency period tilt top pedestal table with an attractive shape and good colour dating from the George III reign, circa 1810. The table has a lovely figured flame mahogany top with cross-banded veneer to the edge and has a snap to tilting mechanism to the turned central solid mahogany pedestal. This is raised on three reeded outswept legs. This is in good sound condition and has a nice antique colour and patina. The table measures 80 cms wide by 58 cms deep by 70 cms high. UK delivery can be arranged with our trusted furniture courier and costs £65 plus vat to most destinations.
