Description

Stunning early George 2nd red walnut bow-fronted hanging corner cabinet of Architectural design. All the mouldings and the cornice are small section cross grain. Most unusual reeded columns to the sides with shaped top and bottom sections. Brass H hinges to the doors with original large iron lock. The inside retains what is probably its original paint. The corner cabinet is a gorgeous colour with waxed finish. The back boards are oak. This cabinet is heavy so would need to be hung by a professional. Some minor old restorations.
