Description

We are delighted to offer this captivating French mid-late 19th-century parcel gilt cigarette case. The entire case is embellished regally with a wonderful contrast between the silver gilt and plain silver areas in which fine engine-turned motifs and hand engravings are present. The workmanship is impressive with a high degree of accuracy forming many geometric shapes and cartouches. On one side a floral bouquet is engraved and a coastal scene can be found on the other side. With practicality, elegance and style combined in one, this cigarette case is the perfect accoutrement for any tobacciana collections or collectors of intricate small antique boxes/cases. Sleek enough to be effortlessly tucked away inside of an inner pocket yet able to carry enough for a day's outing with perhaps one or two extra for your company. The interior is also fully silver gilt which provides a layer of protection from the contents inside oxidising/tarnishing the silver. A further testament to its quality and degree of detail is the spring-loaded push button that still functions very well and allows the lid to be opened with one hand. Whist originally designed for holding ciga...
