Description

Fabulous English 18th Century Antique Oak Linen Press Cupboard. A very honest, English Georgian antique period oak linen press cupboard, quite an unusual design that provides lots of storage. Would work well in a free-standing kitchen as well as for house bedding and clothes. A lovely size with three drawers over two raised panel cupboard doors which open on a working key. All traditionally made using the pegged method, stands on stile feet and had a moulded cornice. Even the sides are well panelled, shelved inside and this 18th century antique oak cupboard is a wonderful colour with great patina. English and dating to around 1770. Dimensions Height: 145cm (57.54") Width: 121cm (48.02") Depth: 53.5cm (21.23")
