Description

Fabulous Oriental nest of tables beautifully decorated with carvings of mythical creatures. A carving of two phoenixes decorate the largest of the tables with lions, dragons and turtles decorating the other three. The supports have Oriental birds and foliage carved into them and united by carved shaped stretchers. As with all nests of tables they increase in size allowing the smallest to be stored inside the larger size tables. Like all antiques there are some imperfections however these only add to their appeal. These very useful decorative little tables will look fantastic wherever they are placed in the home and as they tuck into each other won't take up much room.
