Description

Regency Mahogany Breakfast Table This early 19th-century Regency Mahogany Breakfast Table showcases a classic rectangular shape, making it perfect for both dining and casual settings. It seamlessly blends elegance with functionality, adding a timeless touch to any space. Exceptional Craftsmanship The tulipwood crossbanded top enhances the table's visual appeal with its intricate detailing. To restore its beauty while preserving its historical charm, the surface has been carefully refinished. Light nicks and minor scratches, typical for a table of this age, add to its vintage character, giving it a well-loved and authentic look. Elegant Support and Design A sturdy yet graceful ring-turned column provides excellent support. Carved acanthus details and reeded legs enhance the table's sophisticated design, making it a true statement piece. Original brass casters not only add to the table's vintage charm but also allow for easy movement, ensuring both practicality and style. Condition and Functionality Despite its age, this table remains in excellent condition. The refinished top retains its elegance, while the slight wear, including nicks and scratches, enhances its ...
