Description

We are very pleased to offer one of the finest Chests of Drawers we have seen for a long time. Not marked, as is often the case, but undoubtedly by one of England's finest 19th Century cabinet makers, we think most likely Lamb of Manchester as it has a lot of their traits. All the drawers are smoothly sliding and well lined with superb dovetail joints. The solid brass original handles are in excellent condition. Lovely highly figured Burr Walnut to the front. We have re French polished it to a very high standard so in excellent condition for the home. Drawer Depths from top to bottom: 13,13,16,18, 22 cm. Height 107 cm Width 120 cm Depth 58 cm
