

SA1066950

Pair Antique Richardson Green Wine Glasses c1840

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA1066950*Date of manufacture: 1850

Dimensions

Height = 12.2 cm (4.8")

Description

Technical Description A superb pair of 19th century apple green wine glasses. They have slice cut round funnel bowls, the slice cuts continuing down through the large shoulder knobs and stems. Made by Richardson and Sons in Stourbridge England. Date & Origin England, c1840. Period of Victoria Condition Excellent, age-related wear as shown. Dimensions Height: 12.2cm Bowl diameter: 6.5cm Foot diameter: 7cm. Historical Context In 1840, Wagon Trains start the journey to California, Covered Wagon Trains took immigrants on a journey from Missouri River towns to what is now the state of California. The trip was about 2,000 miles and each night the Covered Wagon Train would form a circle for shelter from wind and extreme weather.

Internal Ref: 2024041401

Seller Details

Exhibit Antiques

Glasgow Scotland United Kingdom

Tel: 01501 228 282

International Tel: +44 1501 228 282