Description

Superb Sutherland table with fabulous barley twist supports, legs and stretcher from the fantastic Victorian era. It is of excellent quality and of neat proportion with a fantastic burr walnut top with satin wood and ebony inlays. The supports and legs terminate on original brass castors. Both leaves are supported by a gatelegs that can be used together or separately. Of solid construction with a gorgeous rich colour and fantastic graining ideal for occasional use and compact when folded. Like all antique furniture there are some imperfections however this is a stunning little table with many more years of use left. When opened the table measures 106.5 cm deep
