Description

This is a wonderful early 20th century teacup by the world renowned Royal Copenhagen in the traditional blue and white fluted Half Lace pattern. Each piece is individually hand painted, they are marked with the painters mark and then numbered depending on the design of the piece. This particular piece is numbered 1/1130, marked Royal Copenhagen which dates this to pre 1930, the painters number is 33. There are no chips, cracks or restoration but it is marked as a second by the factory. This is particularly fine porcelain and a welcome addition to anyone who collects this pattern or blue and white china. I do have a number of other pieces so please take a look at my other items. Postage and packing within the UK is free.
