Description

Regency mahogany linen press Here we are pleased to offer you this Regency mahogany linen press. The proportions are perfect as even for a large piece of furniture it has the Regency elegance. This Antique linen press is made in 3 parts, the cornice, the cupboard section and the base chest section. The cupboard top is fitted the double panel doors with the black line stringing with indent corners that mirrors the fine applied moulding. The doors open to reveal the original slides, quite often people remove these slides and add a hanging rail. (this is something we could do for you if you require, at no extra cost) The base has the usual drawer formation of 2 short and 2 long graduated drawers. The drawers are fitted the totally original ebonised turned knob handles, when these were chosen, they were the height of fashion and right at the start of this fashion cycle. The owners had selected knob handles that were the pinnacle of London fashion in 1820. The Regency mahogany linen press stands on splay bracket feet. By choosing this wonderful linen press not only do you gain large storage you also will own a piece that stands with style and grace, that originally was in a ve...
