Description

This decorative Victorian painted pine chest of drawers exudes a timeless charm, seamlessly blending historical elegance with functional artistry. The piece is meticulously finished in a dark waxed graphite paint, which imparts a sophisticated, matte sheen. What truly sets this chest apart is the front, which has been professionally adorned with an original 1913 RAC map of York. This unique feature not only serves as a conversation starter but also pays homage to the rich history and culture of the region. The chest has been fully restored to its former glory, ensuring that it not only looks magnificent but is also structurally sound and ready for every day use. Whether placed in a contemporary setting or amongst more traditional decor, this chest of drawers promises to make a unique addition to any interior, offering both utility and a touch of historical allure. Height: 36 inches (92 cm) Width: 38 1/2 inches (98 cm) Depth: 17 1/4 inches (44 cm)
