Description

Antique oak dresser with pot board This Antique oak dresser with pot board was made circa 1825. This is of a superb golden colour and patina, and the front turned legs are particularly fine. It is fitted 3 drawers with brass plate handles. The fine 4 turned front legs join to the pot board that runs along the base. Pot board dressers are so versatile as they can be used in many situations in your home, in hallways, dining rooms, drawing rooms are behind a sofa as a great display table for lamps and photographs. Imagine this superb one in your home and what pleasure it will give as it is admired by your family and friends.
