Description

A particularly attractive 8 inch wall clock with 'chisel base' in mahogany, with a nicely coloured flame veneer and good quality enamel dial, signed JN Jones, 338 Strand. JN Jones is recorded as maker and retailer of clocks and watches from 1863-1869, however there are watches signed and hallmarked from 1851 and long after. This good and quite rare wall timepiece was likely made circa 1880. With original single fusee movement fully cleaned and restored, and case in such excellent condition, this is an investment quality clock.
