Description

Antique circular silver bowl with a pretty decorative sides, a beaded rim and pierced decorations. The pierced triangular pattern encircling the bowl is a little different and very attractive. The base is smoothly polished, and this lovely item would be ideal as a small dish for bon bons. Hallmarked at the Birmingham Assay office as sterling silver, date 1910 with makers marks for Samuel S Levi. In good antique condition, but there is a pinprick ding/dent to the inner rim, which shows just below the beading. Please refer to the photos. Height: 4.5 cm Diameter of bowl: 12.5 cm Weight 77 grams All measurements are approximate.
