Description

This George III mahogany hanging display exudes classic elegance and functionality. The piece features a striking flame mahogany swan neck pediment, a distinctive design element that adds a touch of grandeur. Below the pediment, two rectangular glazed doors offer a clear view into the interior while protecting the contents from dust and damage. Inside, two adjustable shelves provide versatile storage options, allowing for the display of items of various sizes. Originally serving as the top section of a very narrow bureau bookcase, this cabinet has been thoughtfully repurposed. It now serves as an ideal hanging display cabinet, perfect for showcasing collections, fine china, or treasured books in a sophisticated manner. Its transformation from a bookcase to a display cabinet is a testament to the timeless craftsmanship and adaptability of antique furniture. Height: 45 1/4 inches (115 cm) Width: 29 3/4 inches (75.5 cm) Depth: 11 1/4 inches (28.5 cm)
