Description

A beautifully crafted 19th-century French Napoleon III card table, showcasing the refinement and decorative artistry of the period. The table features an elegant ebonised and walnut frame, richly adorned with intricate brass and mother-of-pearl inlay forming a central cartouche and delicate foliate motifs across the frieze. Stylised gilt-bronze mounts accent the corners and apron, enhancing the table's luxurious character, while the fluted tapering legs terminate in finely cast brass feet. The top extends and folds open to reveal a smooth playing surface – perfect for both decorative display and occasional use. An exquisite example of French craftsmanship from the Second Empire era, this piece brings timeless sophistication and subtle opulence to any classic or eclectic interior. Condition report: Good antique condition, with some very light scratches to the ebonised top. Measurements: Height 72 cm D 42 cm Width 45 L 86 Extended W 89 cm D 84 cm Worldwide delivery
