Description

I saw this very well made child's chair and couldn't resist it....it has everything going for it....excellent colour and condition....I loved the natural wear on the front stretcher, which would have taken place over many years, by a lot of different children....also the fact it is made out of some of my favourite "country" woodselm, ash and beech....the perfect conformation and of course the patination...simply charming..! English. C1870-90.
