Description

This French walnut commode, adorned with a dark marble top speckled with pale grey is a prime example of 19th century elegance. Featuring four modestly-sized drawers, each accessible with the included key, it seamlessly combines functionality with refined aesthetics. The natural warmth of the walnut wood adds a cozy ambiance to any space, making it equally suitable for bedrooms and main living areas. Designed to maximize storage without compromising on style, this piece embodies timeless sophistication. In a very good recently refinished and restored condition with some signs of previous wear consistent with age and use. A fine high-quality item which is ready to be used. Originates from France. Dates as circa 1860. Made from Walnut and Marble.
