Description

A Wonderful and extremely rare 17th Century Cromwellian Gateleg Table of outstanding rich warm colour. Of delightful small proportions and in superb original condition having the original butterfly hinges still in place. a well drawn piece having moulded plank ends , sledge feet and flat tenoned gates pivoting on a peg hinge. The underneath surface is dry and untouched just as we like to see. A little gem and a fabulous example of untouched surface skin on early english furniture, a real collectors piece.
