Here is a fine quality pair of English Art Deco bedside chests, featuring two “stepped” drawers, constructed from figured walnut, circa 1930, in excellent condition. The pair of Art Deco bedside tables are constructed with stunning figured walnut timbers on a solid carcass. The tops feature small up-stands at the back of the chests. The walnut nightstands are constructed with two large working drawers, decorated with decorative figured-walnut detail, which are constructed with dovetail joints. The top drawer sits within a “stepped” moulded border; this style of moulding is replicate on the tops and sides of the bedsides. The drawer fronts also retain original cream Bakelite and metal handle...
