Here is a fine quality antique English Georgian mahogany side table, with a serpentine top and single drawer, circa 1800, in excellent original condition. The table boasts a single-plank serpentine shaped top (a sign of quality), with a moulded edge, above a single working frieze drawer. The drawer incorporates the original brass swan neck handles on oval backplate escutcheons. The oak-lined drawer is constructed with fine hand dovetail joints and the drawer front is decorated with cock beading. The drawer runs smoothly and closes flush to the frame. The Georgian mahogany side table...
