Description

Bonomi Edward Warren fl 1860-1877. Painted landscape and country subjects. Exhibited twenty watercolours at the Royal Society of British Artists, Suffolk Street including views in Surrey and works entitled 'Where the Blackbird Builds and Sings', 'A Shady Beechwood' and 'A Woodland Way'. Also exhibited two woodland subjects at the RA, London address. House in its original decorative giltwood and plaster which has been regilded. 'A Sportsman and his Dog on a Wooded Path' signed watercolour heightened by gum Arabic, dated 1868; image size 68x52 cms, framed size 93.5x75 cms. This exhibition quality watercolour is possibly the finest quality example I have seen executed by the artist. The depiction of the dappled light and shade is quite outstanding!
