Description

A striking black and white half-length portrait of a handsome fusilier from the year 1900. The oak frame is solid and in good condition and bears a inscribed silver metal shield plaque. The inscription on the plaque reads 'Presented to Captain Charles Corsar by the non-com officers and men 7 to 9 Coys 1st F.V.A. on the occasion of his marriage 25th October 1900' Captain Charles looks very handsome in his uniform as he poses his picture. A great piece of history to adorn any wall.
