Description

This stunning cruciform pendant is set with four aquamarine paste teardrops and five round aquamarine pastes. The stones are set into nine-carat gold, and there's a lovely subtle contrast between the large open-backed stones and the round ones, which are foil backed to give a slightly lighter brighter sparkle. The cross, believed to date from the early part of the 19th century, hangs on a fine Edwardian nine-carat gold chain which we think works rather well; if you'd like the cross without the chain just let us know before you check out. Both the pendant and the chain are in excellent antique condition; the bottom teardrop stone has a chip toward the tip but it's hard to see in real life, even when you're looking for it. The chain is marked 9CT on the clasp. Pendant size: Approx 3.2 x 3.2cm. Chain length: Approx 18 inches. Combined weight: 8.7g. FREE INTERNATIONAL SHIPPING!
