Description

Circa 1850. An early Victorian mahogany three door wardrobe. The stylish moulded cornice with flame mahogany frieze, the central mirrored door flanked by a pair of paneled doors, all 3 doors with faux bamboo mouldings carved in mahogany. Each of the doors has carved corbels on the top, inside are a combination of hanging, drawers and pullout slides. Beneath the doors is a simple moulding and the robe rests on an enclosed plinth. The robe breaks into several parts for ease of movement.
