Description

Pair Of Early 20th Century Iron Garden Chairs Early 20th Century Wrought Iron Layers of worn old blue and white paint Seats have a geometric pierced design Gently sweeping arms and heart shaped backs Very pretty look Both are in very good condition Free of any damage Solid, sturdy frames and seats Would work well in the garden or patio or in the home H: 98cm (38.6") W: 45cm (17.7") D: 41cm (16.1") A charming and decorative pair of wrought iron early 20th century garden chairs, with layers of worn old blue and white paint decoration to each. With gently sweeping arms and heart shaped backs. The seats have a geometric pierced design and are free of any damage and remain both comfortable and useable. Both are in very good condition, with solid, sturdy frames and seats. Would work well in both the garden, on the patio or in the home. A very pretty look, use these with a small iron table for a couple to enjoy breakfast on the terrace in the morning or mix them in with other styled chairs to create a larger garden dining set for when friends and family visit.
