Description

Antique Tibetan decorated cabinet This Antique Tibetan decorated cabinet was made in the 19th century. It is hand painted and decorated on the elm carcass. Furniture of this manner is very desirable as it fits in with both classic and contemporary interiors. It has multiple panels with various mythical beasts and stylised tigers in roundels that are bordered with floral decoration. It is fitted a pair of doors that open to reveal a shelf, drawers, and storage areas. It is hard not to imagine how wonderful this cabinet will look in your home and can go into so many places around your home.
