Description

This is an elegant antique Regency dining table that can comfortably seat twelve people, circa 1830 in date. The table features elegant simplicity, with straight, unbroken surfaces and lines. It has two leaves which can be added or removed as required to suit the occasion and it stands on three turned column quadruple leg bases which are fitted with brass toes and castors. The table top is of beautiful flame mahogany with an elegant reeded edge. There is no mistaking the fine craftsmanship of this handsome dining table which is certain to become a treasured addition to your furniture collection and a talking point with guests at meal times. The chairs shown in the photographs are not included in the price, but are available if required. Condition: In really excellent condition having been beautifully cleaned, polished and waxed in our workshops, please see photos for confirmation.
