Description

This 19th-century French Empire-style marble-topped commode boasts a solid French chestnut build with a burr walnut veneer. The woodwork remains in its original state, free of repairs, and features authentic brass handles, escutcheons, and mounts. Dimensions: Height 89 cm, Width 130 cm, Depth 58 cm. Originating from the 19th century, this French commode is a remarkable piece, offering exceptional value and ample storage for a bedroom setting. I have personally waxed the commode to excellent condition, preserving the authenticity of its wear and tear. Delivery to mainland UK is typically £70, with final rates subject to destination, complexity, coastal and congestion charges. For an exact delivery quote, please contact Richie at 07912624065. International shipping options are available. Viewings at our workshop showroom can be scheduled by appointment. Should you wish to return the item, although highly unlikely, the transportation costs would be your responsibility.
