Description

A Beautiful mid 18th Century Welsh Dresser of the most spectacular rich golden colour and patina. In wonderful original condition and having superb original back boards, remarkably retaining the original handles, one of which has been moved slightly. Having strong solid Oak drawer linings and very solid construction throughout typical of welsh dressers of this period. A perfectly proportioned piece having well shaped hooded rack sitting above two fielded panelled doors with drawers above and bank of drawers to the centre.
