Description

A pair of Scottish mahogany-framed side chairs by R. (Richard) Whytock & Co. of Edinburgh. A robust, well-made pair of chairs, probably with buttoned leather upholstery originally, now stripped back to the ticking. The firm is best known today as one half of the famous firm of Whytock & Reid, a partnership formed in 1876. However by this time R. Whytock has been established for 40 years and counted The Earls of Mansfield, The 4th Marquess of Bute and Queen Victoria among their patrons. Seat height 44cm. Reliable transport throughout the UK can be easily arranged at cost price, please let me know if you would like a quote or have any questions. Follow us on Instagram: jeckyllandco
