Description

Circle of Antoine Pesnes 1725 Margravine of Bayreuth Old Master Portrait A delightful portrait of a young noble woman ascribed on a label verso as la margravine de Bayreuth, 1725. Princess Friederike Sophie Wilhelmine of Prussia (1709 –1758) was the older sister of Frederick the Great and granddaughter of George I. Presented in a period French frame marked with the collector's stamp "Robert Mond". Sir Robert Mond and his Prussian born father were pre-eminent art collectors of the Victorian era. There is a substantial amount of information available relating to the Margravine and Robert Mond's collections are well documented, so further research may prove enlightening. Condition. The canvas has been lined and mounted on a replacement stretcher. One or two touch-ups to the background area, mild craquelure to the paint surface, otherwise in good sound condition. The carved frame is pleasantly time worn and has minor nibbles and abrasions. Size 63cm x 52cm (77cm x 66cm framed) 25 x 21 inches (30 x 26 inches framed)
