

SA1069132

Attributed To John Cawthorn Oil Painting Of Wakefield Cathedral Yorkshire

Price

GBP 850

| USD $1,150 | EUR 995

Item Reference: SA1069132Date of manufacture: 1800

Dimensions

Height = 38 cm (15.0")

Width = 58 cm (22.8")

Description

Attributed to John Cawthorn topographical painter fl 1804-1815, also known as a junior. early 19th-century Wakefield Cathedral oil painting. Original painting of Wakefield parish church (Wakefield Cathedral) circa 1807. This painting is one of the oldest surviving original oil paintings of Wakefield Cathedral Yorkshire. Attributed to John Cawthorn topographical painter fl 1804-1815, also known as a junior. John Cawthorn made topographical paintings throughout Yorkshire in 1804-1807, these paintings were engraved by the likes of Joseph Smith. Very competently painted in the 18th-century style. The painting has been cleaned and restored with some over-painting and has been relined. unframed. Brief History of John Cawthorn John Cawthorn was an English writer and artist who lived during the early 19th century. He is best known for his work as a topographical artist, producing detailed illustrations and engravings of landscapes and townscapes throughout England. Cawthorn was particularly interested in the Yorkshire region, and many of his topographical views of the area are still admired and studied today. Cawthorn was born in Hull, Yorkshire, in 1775, and spent much of his...

Seller Details

Antiques Decorative (Sussex)

East Sussex United Kingdom By appointment only.

Tel: 07565 761917

International Tel: +44 7565 761917