Description

Victorian tazza cake stand decorated in the Imari style in Devonshire pattern. Transfer printed in very dark brown with fabulous under glaze hand painting in rich orange lustre. The pattern features a fancy pin wheel flower border with oversized daisy type flowers and three magnificent cartouches. One with a proud rooster watching the sun rise beneath the cherry branch, another with a bird chasing an insect, and the last is of two unusual fish swimming among seashells and coral. Delightful and whimsical design to bring a dash of colour to afternoon tea. Devonshire pattern, Ridgway Potteries, Stoke on Trent, Staffordshire England, c.1885. Height 12.5 cm Diameter 23.8 cm Base diameter 11.7 cm Weight 929 g Condition: Two small hairline cracks along the edge, two fleabites along the edge, age appropriate crazing.
