Description

A handsome antique inlaid mahogany sewing table or lamp table dating from circa 1905. It has a beautifully figured and inlaid over-sailing top above a frieze drawer with brass drop handle. Below is a material lined compartment originally for storing wool and sewing equipment. This fine antique table stands on four tapering legs with an X framed cross stretcher for added stability. The top, drawer and legs are all inlaid with satinwood banding. Solid and sturdy, a stylish small table, with good colour and patina would make a wonderful sewing table or could simply be used as a lamp table or side table with added storage. Construction/Wood: Mahogany Condition Report: Solid and sturdy, general wear and marks commensurate with age. Good original patina a colour. Box has been recovered in red material at some point, fairly clean. A few small solid old mended splits to the cross stretchers in places.
