Description

Indulge in the timeless elegance of the Cotswolds School with this very stylish octagonal rosewood occasional or lamp table. Crafted with meticulous attention to detail, this piece embodies the quintessence of style and functionality. The octagonal tabletop is a beautifully shaped surface that adds a unique geometric appeal to any room. The rich, deep hues of rosewood provide a luxurious feel, while its durability ensures lasting beauty. Four elegantly profiled legs converge on a central pedestal, offering a stable and stylish foundation. A sledge-footed cross frame base unites the legs, adding stability and a touch of artistic flair. Lovingly brought back to its original splendour, with every detail carefully attended to. Our in-house workshop has meticulously cleaned and applied a wax finish, enhancing the wood's natural grain and colour. Presented in impeccable condition, ready to grace your home or office with its refined beauty. This Cotswold School table is not just a piece of furniture; it's a statement of sophistication that stands the test of time. Whether used as a charming lamp table or as an occasional table to display your cherished collectibles, it promises...
