Description

Large Impressive Venetian mirror with an old retailer on the rear. 19th-century Venetian mirror with a superbly etched frame of flowers and leaves with scallop cut and bevelled edges. The frame of the mirror is a work of art in itself, showcasing the skilled craftsmanship synonymous with Venetian design. The French-inspired detailing adds a touch of romance, while the etched flowers bring a graceful and organic element to the overall aesthetic. The mirror's generous size not only serves its functional purpose but also becomes a focal point, commanding attention with its grandeur. Condition One of the cut flowers is missing in the corner. The top of the mirror has an old repair. please contact for a shipping quote
