Description

A superb miniature, or apprentice piece, bowfront chest of drawers. The chest is beautifully veneered in wonderfully figured burr elm and the top and drawer fronts also feature walnut feather banding. The whole piece is beautifully made to a high standard with drawers that slide freely. The cast drop handles are original and very unusual, I suspect they may have been specially made for the piece. The whole is in great condition with just some fading to one side. It is a fine example of miniature furniture in a very unusual wood with a great original colour and patina. C.1910. Overall sizes in inches: 7 ¾ wide 5 deep 7 ½ high
