Description

* Reduced to reflect 20% Sale on our own Website * This stunning Early Victorian bed has beautifully attractive features everywhere you look. From its distinct and intricate iron work, which mounts and surrounds the original hand painted ornamental plaque, to the flowing lines of the ironwork held by floral decorative castings, which mirror the original hand painted flowers within the plaque. This delightful bed also has tapered posts leading to a particularly attractive original brass cap and finial, the simplicity of the brass elements harmonise with the bed beautifully. This truly is a unique and special bed – please do see all the photos. This bed has been professionally restored to be sturdy and practical, but also beautiful. The frame has been shot blasted, primed and hand painted in Little Greene's Jack Black, waxed to give a soft sheen and to preserve.
