Description

Introducing an exquisite antique 20th-century sideboard, meticulously crafted from the finest quality oak. This remarkable piece stands gracefully on decorative barley twist legs with bun feet, complemented by an elegant supporting stretcher that adds both stability and charm. Boasting a thoughtful design, the sideboard features a single-door cupboard on each side, flanked by three central drawers—among which lies a discreet secret compartment, a delightful surprise for the discerning owner. Retaining all its original brass handles and fittings, this sideboard exudes authenticity and character. Adorned with beautiful decorative elements, including subtle carvings and intricate mouldings, the front fascia of this sideboard is a testament to its timeless allure. The oak wood showcases a magnificent grain and coloration, enhancing its visual appeal and adding warmth to any space. In excellent condition, this sideboard is not just a statement piece but also a functional storage solution, offering both style and practicality. Don't miss the chance to make this exceptional antique a centrepiece in your home, where it will surely captivate with its beauty and craftsmanship. Pro...
