Description

Wonderful vintage French Parisian Vion & Baury style 1870's hand painted figurine of a young woman. Porcelain figurine of a young barefoot woman with a sickle harvesting wheat. Hand painted and gilded. A fine example of the high art in style of the famous French porcelain manufacturer. Beautiful figurine entirely decorated by hand. She is richly dressed in a pink waistcoat with gold embroidery, a blouse with ruffles and pearls, a lavender apron and a stunning skirt decorated with numerous bouquets of flowers. The attractive vintage Vion & Baury style hand-painted figurine is in excellent condition and undamaged. The colours are sharp and vibrant and the extra fine artwork is evident from top to bottom. The base is unmarked. This figure is a complete replica of the famous Vion & Baury model. It can be assumed that Vion & Baury sold the mould of this figure to one of the small Parisian companies and they cast and painted this figure. And if this figurine had the Vion & Baury mark on it, we could say that it is their figurine. Height 30 cm Width 13 cm Depth 10 cm Weight 1283 grams. Condition - small chip to the tip of the sickle, minor gilding loss. Otherwise excellent an...
