Description

This is a large antique shipping chest. A Continental, aluminium travelling trunk, dating to the Edwardian period, circa 1910. Distinctive aluminium appearance, with a useful proportion. Displaying a desirable aged patina throughout. Aluminium panels reinforced with rivet-bonded finish. Each corner enhanced with steel cappings. Ornamental clasp to the centre of the fascia — key absent. Lid held securely by a pair of latches. Interior finished in a bright cream canvas textile. Delightful, aged leather straps aid ease of carriage. This is a well-proportioned antique shipping trunk, with an eye-catching appearance. Delivered ready for the home.
