Description

Fantastic Victorian solid pine mule chest with scumbled painted finish in fabulous original condition. This is an usual chest as most have one or two drawers and this has three. The drawers all run smooth and of dovetail construction and retain original brass flush mount pull handles. This storage box raised on bun feet has a hinged lid, two metal carry handles and a spacious clean interior. Like all antiques there are some imperfections however these only enhance the look of this outstanding storage box. This is a striking example of period furniture with beautiful warm colouring and amazing patina offers not only storage space but history to any home.
