Description

This is a beautiful walnut Victorian bedroom chair/nursing chair. The circular upholstered buttoned back with a crisp floral carving to the top is flanked by scrolling carved panels. The serpentine shaped seat is generous sized with more carving to the apron, stands on cabriole legs to the front and swept rear legs on original white porcelain castors finished in an cream satin damask cloth with matching trim. The walnut frame displaying good colour with good carved detail and a desirable aged patina makes this an attractive and striking chair which will enhance and become the centrepiece of any room. Seat Height=39cm
