This is a fine quality antique English Victorian fireside mahogany leather chair, which has been newly upholstered in a deep-buttoned full grain red leather, circa 1860 in excellent condition. The mahogany leather chair boasts generous proportions with a stunning quality moulded solid mahogany frame, with a reclining back, upholstered scroll end carved arms and deep button back, set above a shaped moulded scalloped front rail on carved turned front legs and splayed legs to the rear, terminating on its original brass castors. The quality of the timber and carvings to this chair frame is second to none compared to similar chairs on the market today. The mahog...
