

SA1071362

19th Century Anglo-Chinese Portrait Oil Painting of a British Gentleman

Price

GBP 595

| USD $805 | EUR 696

Item Reference: SA1071362Date of manufacture: 1920

Dimensions

Height = 43 cm (16.9")

Width = 33 cm (13.0")

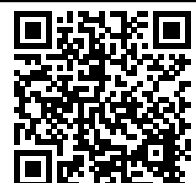

Description

Early 20th-century portrait of a British Gentleman in China. From 1920 - to 1945 British intellectuals' lived and travelled mainly throughout treaty ports of China. intellectuals consisted mainly of artists, writers, poets, and businesspeople. Composition The portrait focuses closely on the head and upper shoulders of the subject, creating an intimate and personal feel. The background is kept simple, allowing the viewer's attention to remain on the subject. Label verso Chapman brothers 241 Kings Road Chelsea. Chapman's brothers were important framers for artists like Holman Hunt, John Singer Sargeant, Sir William Orpen. Medium Oil on Artist board. unsigned Condition Report Recently been cleaned

Seller Details

Antiques Decorative (Sussex)

East Sussex United Kingdom By appointment only.

Tel: 07565 761917

International Tel: +44 7565 761917